About John Smith

Born in Oxfordshire England, John Smith turned down offers to play professional soccer in England to pursue his educational goals. In 1970 he came to the United States as a soccer coach at a camp in Western Massachusetts. His shooting power caught the attention of the New England Patriots who invited John to try out as a field goal kicker in 1973.

John Smith is well-known as one of the premier place kickers in the National Football League. Smith was with the New England Patriots from 1973-1983. He is known for leading the AFC in field goal percentage inside 40 yards with an 81% completion rate.

For the past 30 years John Smith has run his own programs and clinics throughout Massachusetts. He has been instrumental in starting Youth Soccer Programs in numerous towns as well as teaching thousands of coaches and parents to enjoy working with young soccer players of all abilities.

He was instrumental in organizing the World Cup campaign for Boston. During the event Smith worked as the soccer analyst for Channel 5 Television and Cable News.

Great Coaches

John Smith hires some of the best USSF coaches from the professional, college, and high school ranks. In addition, there are FA coaches brought over from England to work exclusively with the summer soccer programs.

Excellent Coach/Player Ratio

One coach for every 12 players.
